

All STC Laboratories & Offices in Asia, Europe & the USA Are Open

Dear STC customers and partners,

It is STC's standing policy to provide continuous services to our customers' needs in product safety and quality as well as consumer health in accordance with all national and international standards, rules and regulations regarding consumer safety.

In response to the global coronavirus pandemic, the STC group management is taking immediate preventative measures. However, while in compliance with all applicable health and safety guidelines in all countries where we operate, all our laboratories and offices in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Japan, Vietnam, Germany and the United States will remain open to continue our professional, reliable and comprehensive services.

During the current public health crisis, we will continue to monitor the pandemic's development and the latest precautionary measures with a view to minimizing the impact on your business.
